DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group II in Paper No. 7 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the subject matter is sufficiently related. This is not found persuasive because the search areas are different.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the reference to the parent application must include the present status, whether patented, abandoned or pending.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 17-18 and 22-31 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Charter et al, 4,117,067 (Charter).
5. Charter teaches a perform comprising a liquid binder material coated onto a fibrous carrier strand and a molded composite article formed therefrom. The fibrous carrier can be a chopped roving, wherein the chopped segments have a length within the range contemplated by applicants in claims 28 and 31. In addition, the matrix material can be a resin of the sort set forth by applicants in claims 24-25. Regarding claims 17-18, 22, 26 and 29, these claims are product-by-process claims, wherein patentability resides solely in the product, in the absence of clear factual evidence to the contrary of unexpected or superior properties directly related to the process.

6. No claims are allowed.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jill M Gray whose telephone number is 703.308.2381. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-6:00.
